

AWFUL SCENES WERE ENACTED

It Is Now Probable That Mrs. Guinness Was Not Burned In The Ruins Of Her Home.

MORE PERSONS REPORTED MISSING

Woman Evidently Secured All The Money Her Victims Had And Then Killed Them, Concealing Their Bodies Near The House.

La Porte, Ind., May 6.—It is now certain that Mrs. Belle Guinness was one of the most notorious and monstrous murderers that this country has ever seen. How many more of her victims will be discovered is not now known, but the latest evidence gathered from the sensational happenings of the past few days develops that with all probability the woman is not dead herself but has disappeared with much of her ill-gotten swag.

The seventh body was found on the Guinness farm this afternoon buried four feet deep, evidently that of an adult, but of unknown sex. It had been dismembered like the majority of the others.

Other Bodies Found
Early today the body of a sixth victim was unearthed. It is probably that of an adult who has been buried for at least two years, nothing but the skeleton remaining. An examination of the two corpses, thought yesterday to have been those of children, are now definitely known to have been those of adults, probably those of men. All the bodies found thus far have been dismembered with the separate pieces wrapped in different packages and all buried in a heap.

No Head Found
From out of the tangled mass of evidence thus far accumulated it is almost a certainty that the woman did not die when her home burned on April 28. The body found in the ruins with the child in its arms had no head and thus far no trace of a head has been found. It was supposed to have been that of the owner of the property and was buried as such in Chicago, but it is now considered probable that it was a corpse substituted and hidden beyond recognition before the fire was set.

New Victim
The sheriff today commenced an investigation into the disappearance of Ole Hudeborg of Iowa. Hudeborg came to La Porte in March of 1907. He was acquainted with Mrs. Guinness and in company with her visited the La Porte Savings bank, where he received a thousand dollars collected on a note. He has never been seen since. It is possible that his body is one of those found.

Some Identified
Of the five first bodies dug up two have been positively identified. One is that of Andrew Heldgren, a wealthy bachelor of Aberdeen, S. D., and the other the eleven-year-old adopted daughter of the woman, Jennie Olson, who was supposed to be visiting in California. The other three of the first bodies found are so badly decomposed that identification is almost impossible. Sheriff Shutzler and Coroner Clark are, however, continuing their gruesome task of digging in the "soft" places of the Guinness farm and expect to unearth other corpses.

How the Bodies Were Discovered.
The discovery of the bodies was brought about by the appearance of John Heldgren of Aberdeen, S. D., brother of Andrew Heldgren, in La Porte in search for the missing man. With information that his brother Andrew had come to La Porte to wed Mrs. Guinness and that he had turned over his property to her, he became convinced that he had been made the victim of foul play.

While questioning Joseph Maxson, a hired hand on the Guinness farm, he learned of the mysterious digging of holes by him, all of them being filled at a later date by Mrs. Guinness. He led Heldgren and the officers to the place where the holes had been dug.

BIG CONFERENCE OF METHODIST CHURCH

Quadrennial General Conference of Methodists Began Today in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., May 6.—The quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opened in Lyric Hall in this city today. When the presiding bishop walked to the front of the stage and rapped for order he faced one of the most notable gatherings of churchmen in the history of Protestantism in America. Seated in the auditorium were 800 clerical and lay delegates, representing Methodism in the four quarters of the earth, while occupying places of honor on the stage were the members of the board of bishops. The initial session was occupied with the opening addresses, the exchange of greetings, the calling of the roll and other business of a preliminary nature. Interpersing the program were a number of musical selections.

For the next four weeks and possibly longer the conference will remain in session to discuss the problems of the church and to legislate for its welfare. Many questions of great importance are to be brought up for consideration and action. Of most interest among the delegates and visitors at present, however, appears to be the election of new bishops. There are more than a score of candidates for the six or eight places to be filled on the board of bishops and some lively bottom-hole campaigning is being done by the friends of the various aspirants.

Annual Sophomore and Freshmen Clash Rush Will Not Be Stopped This Year.

Madison, Wis., May 6.—The "bloody rush" of the freshmen and sophomore classes of the University of Wisconsin, which has annually resulted in the maiming of students who participate, will not be abolished unless President Van Hise takes the matter into his own hands. After the rush of last fall, he asked the "student conference committee," 25 student advisors of the president, to take the matter up and modify or abolish the barbarous custom at which the two lower classes vent their hatred for each other each fall. A sub-committee proposed a substitution in the form of an inter-class athletic meet, the winning class of each event to be given a number of members of the defeated class as hostages with whom to parade through the city streets in triumph as Roman generals returning victorious from battles were wont to drag captives at the wheels of their chariots. President Van Hise refused to sanction this hostage proposal and the conference committee voted, 19 to 5, to continue the "bloody rush." It is said that unless the students or President Van Hise abolish this rush, a bill will be introduced in the legislature to compel action.

COMMISSIONER AFTER FIRE DEPARTMENT

Serious Charges Are Made Against Fond Du Lac Fire Department.

Fond Du Lac, Wis., May 6.—The board of police and fire commission is right on the trail of the fire department in this city, and the chances are that some of the men who are now on the pay roll will have to be dropped off, if some of the rumors are true which have been voiced by the members of the board. The president of the commission says that some of the men cannot climb a ladder. If this is found to be the case these will be

TWO STATE CONVENTIONS CALLED TO ORDER TODAY

Kentucky Republicans And "Regular" Republicans Of Alabama Meet.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Louisville, Ky., May 6.—The Republican state convention is in session here today to select delegates to the national convention. The results of the county conventions held ten days ago were not of an altogether decisive character, though they showed Taft to be stronger throughout the state than the opposition had been willing to concede. The Fairbanks supporters, despite the feeling of confidence emanating from the Taft camp today, declare that the convention will not pledge the Kentucky delegates to vote for the Secretary of War.

Alabama Republicans For Taft.
Birmingham, Ala., May 6.—The "regular" Republican state convention met here today to select delegates to the national convention. The so-called state organization is in entire control of the convention and Taft instructions are assured. The anti-Taft element has already taken steps to send a contesting delegation to the Chicago convention.

Day State Democrats.
Boston, Mass., May 6.—The Democratic state convention to choose the delegates-at-large to the Denver convention is to meet in Faneuil Hall tomorrow and it is not improbable that the historic "cradle of liberty" may be the scene of lively proceedings. There is a sharp alignment between the Bryan and the anti-Bryan factions of the democratic party in this state. In the preliminary skirmish that has been going on for some time past the Bryan element, under the leadership and direction of George Fred Williams, has been displaying the most activity. The Bryan supporters have been in control of the caucuses and have been almost unopposed in arranging their plans to control the state convention.

But what is left of the "safe and sane" democracy has finally aroused itself and is preparing to contest for the control of the convention. The indications are that the Bryan element will be permitted to have things pretty much their own way up to the point of instructing for the Nebraska. The opposition is determined that the delegates from Massachusetts shall go to Denver unpledged, and if an attempt is made to instruct for Bryan it is probable that the result will be a split convention.

STORY WILL BE HELD FOR TRIAL ON THE TESTIMONY

Belleville Bank Cashier Is Certain To Come To Trial For The Alleged Juggling Of Books.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 6.—Attorney General Gilbert expects to complete today the preliminary examination of Ed. C. Story, former cashier of the Citizens State Bank of Belleville, this county, who is charged with the embezzlement of $23,000 of the bank's money. It seems assured that the defendant will be held for trial.

It appears that Story covered up his alleged pecuniary largely by manipulating the account of Henry Elmer, an unschooled fellow who engaged in buying and selling cheese from the factories of the Belleville neighborhood. When he first proposed to do business with the Citizens' bank, the president and directors had him under consideration and determined that he should not be given credit or be allowed to overdraw his account unless he put up ample security. Such orders, the officers of the bank have testified, were given to Cashier Story. Now he sets up as his defense that the shortage of $23,000 is represented almost entirely by overdrafts by Elmer. He also alleges that he made errors in bookkeeping. Elmer denies that he owes the bank. At first he merely said that he knew little about his relations with the bank because he kept no set of books, but he has produced a lot of memoranda which the state's attorney believes show that Elmer did not in fact overdraw his account, but that he is entitled to

NATIONAL ISSUES NOT ALLUDED TO

Except Where They Affect the State of Ohio—Democrats Declare For Bryan.

Columbus, O., May 6.—The democratic state convention to nominate a full state ticket and four delegates at large to the national convention met at ten o'clock this morning. ITALIAN TRIES TO KILL FIVE PEOPLE

New York Police Think That Youth Was Blackhand Emphasis—Victim Still Alive.

New York, May 6.—A sixteen-year-old boy known only as Carmello, employed in a barber shop in Brooklyn, early today cut the throats of his employer, Antonio Peraso, Mrs. Peraso and three barbers while they lay asleep in Peraso's apartment. All victims are still alive. The boy escaped. The police have the theory that the boy was an agent of a "blackhand" gang which has been demanding money from Peraso.

WANT A MOTOR CAR SERVICE INSTALLED

Merchants Ask For One Between Green Day and Manitowoc—Train Schedule, Dad.

Manitowoc, Wis., May 5.—The merchants of this city have asked the C. & N. W. railroad to install a motor car service on its line between this city and Green Bay, and will go to the State Railroad commission if necessary to enforce the demand. This action was brought by the refusal of the North-Western railroad to readily endorse today by the Connecticut republican state convention. The delegates to the national convention at Chicago were instructed for Taft.

FALSE MINISTERS WAS THE SUBJECT

MISSIONARY GIVES FACTS AND BIBLE QUOTATIONS IN ADDRESS.

DEALS A TELLING BLOW

L. Schmidt Preaching at Salvation Army Hall Takes up Question of Duties of God's Ministers. From the prophet even unto the priest everyone doeth falsely, Jeremiah 23:13; and Ezekiel 13, was the scripture used by L. Schmidt, the missionary, in his Bible talk last night at the Salvation Army hall. The speaker went on to say, "Let us see what the Bible tells us, as to how we may know the false ministers. In John 1 we read it is the one who is hired, the one who preaches for wages. In Isa. 56 we read it is those that sleep and lying down and them that look to their own way for his gain. In Isa. 8:22—'If they speak not according to the law of God.' It is certainly true, there is not one word about Sunday-keeping in the Bible from Genesis to Revelation. It seems very plain that the ministers who do not teach and keep the seventh day are not of God according to Matthew 23:13. The Lord tells us in Leviticus 11:7-47 not to eat swine's flesh, or oysters, or clams, etc., and yet it is a fact, that both ministers and church-members eat these filthy scavengers, and very often have oyster suppers, and clam chowders in the churches to raise money to pay the hired minister's salary. Some ministers go as far as to have dances, card parties, entertainments and concerts in the house which they claim is the house of God. Ministers who do such things and permit such abominations are not of God. A minister who teaches when a righteously person then he or she goes to heaven is a false minister and does not preach the truth, for the Lord says in Ecclesiastes 9:10—'The dead know not anything, neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.' In Job 14:12 we read—'So man lieth down, and sleepeth; till the heavens be no more; they shall not awake nor be raised out of their sleep.' Jesus raised the dead when He comes again—1 Thes. 4:16-17. Why should He come to get them if they go to heaven when they die? or why do the ministers and the people sing, on that bright and cloudless morning when the dead in Christ shall rise? The Lord tells us His ministers are preachers or sowers of seed, and gold, or brass in the purse, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor we read in Matthew 23:42—'Of course the false ministers must have money and pay from the congregations, and take up collections, for the Lord only helps the ministers that preach the truth. John and Peter seemed to get along like without silver and gold, as we read in Acts 3:6. The false ministers are not able to heal the sick as we read in Acts 2:43-47, but very often recommend some members of the church when sick some patent medicine, or a certain whiskey or beer which they themselves very often get free from manufacturers, because they advertise and recommend it to the members. Such ministers are not of God. While I was in Edgerton, Wis., my business took me to a German family. When I got to the house I found a wedding in progress. They were eating and drinking like we read in Luke 21:34-35. The Lutheran minister was drinking beer and smoking cigars with the rest of the men in the house. Such is the condition in many religious organizations; such ministers are not of God. This same Lutheran minister ordered a man to bring him some strawberries on the Sabbath day, and when the merchant informed him that his wife would not pick them on the Sabbath day so that he could not bring them, the minister answered that if he would pick them early, about 1 o'clock in the morning, the Lord would not see it. If a minister tells a lie, he is no better than any sinner, and such men are not of God. While I was in Rome, N. Y., in the missionary work some years ago holding meetings, the Baptist church gave a supper and entertainment to raise money to pay the minister's salary and other expenses for the church. The entertainment part of the program was: There were three ladies on exhibition for any man to kiss a young lady for 25c, a married woman at 50c, and an old maid for 10c, to raise money for the church. It was a shame and a disgrace, but such ministers who are false will do and permit anything for money. The Lord says they shall have their eye to the teeth for false teachers. 2 Peter 2:1-3. Mr. Schmidt remarked that no minister has a right to call himself 'Reverend' or 'Pastor,' for the Lord forbids this in Matthew 23:9-10, and call no minister 'Father.' There is a certain church who calls the head man in it 'the most holy Father,' and yet the members of it admit that God is more holy than any person on this earth. The Lord admonishes us to preach the gospel, and glorify His name and not men on this earth. Mr. Schmidt, the evangelist, will continue his Bible talk this evening on the topic, 'The Second Coming of the Lord,' according to Matthew 24. All are welcome. The meetings are free. There is no collection and no admission. He speaks in any church wherever invited to do so on gospel, health and temperance.

LIST OF THOSE APPOINTED AT THE BOARD MEETING.

NO CHANGES ARE NOTED

All Are Re-elected—Board Considered Many Important Matters.

At a meeting of the school board held on Monday evening many matters of importance to the school life of the city were discussed and decided upon. The question of equipping the Adams school with a new ventilating system adequate for the needs of the school at the same time that the new heating plant is installed was discussed and a committee appointed to investigate the cost of the same and secure plans and estimates for the work.

The question of improvement of the Jefferson school grounds was also discussed and the committee having the work in charge told of the plan to fill up the old wells and erect ponds, level the grounds and put in flower beds. They are also strongly urged the building of sidewalks on the north and west sides of the grounds, so that a grade can be established for permanent improvements. On the Washington school grounds the old rolling booth has been taken away and the grounds otherwise made more beautiful.

One new feature was added to the school life of the city in the shape of an ungraded room to be established next fall in the Lincoln school in charge of Claude Stout. Here the boys from different schools will be sent when they get too big for the teachers to manage and if will have good influence on the general discipline of the schools as a whole. The following is the list of teachers elected:

Washington school—Margaret Peterson, principal; Julia Dutton, Melba Howies, Alice Whiffen, Helen Middleton, Catherine Crowley, Louise Shorer.

Adams school—May Clark, principal; May Henderson, Margaret Joyce, Phoebe Cunningham, Alice Young, Elsie, Rosemary Earlight, Augusta Klingner, Margaret Younghouse.

BASKETBALL GAME A ROAD TO MATRIMONY

Physician Weds Girl Who Nursed Him Whom He First Met at Basketball Contest.

St. Paul, Minn., May 6.—A romance so unusual as to seem fiction has come to light at St. Joseph's hospital. It is a story of how a beautiful Wisconsin girl saved the life of a wealthy North Dakota physician, lying at the point of death. Dr. Leroy F. Straight of De Smet, N. D., came to St. Paul for treatment for pleuro-pneumonia in March. He was not expected to recover. Miss Hannah Berger of Portage, Wis., is the daughter of one of the leading citizens of that town. Miss Berger is a devotee of the game of basketball. Two years ago the city team of Portage was playing with Port Washington, an old time rival. As usual Miss Berger was seated in the front of the gallery waving a banner and shouting lustily for the home team. There was a vacant seat next to her, and in the excitement she did not notice a handsome man take the seat and watch her with more than usual interest.

"I beg your pardon, miss, but I am a stranger here and a stranger to the game of basketball. Will you instruct me?" and he leaned toward her. Of course, she consented to teach him all she knew about the game, but before the game had ended basketball was forgotten and Col. Cuppl had made his appearance upon the scene. Before Mr. Straight left Portage he was affianced. Repeated visits strengthened the bond of affection. Last March Dr. Straight visited St. Paul. He contracted a severe cold which developed into pneumonia and he was removed to a hospital in a serious condition. He became unconscious and in his delirium spoke of nothing but his sweetheart. "Send for Hannah," he said, and his fiancée was informed of his critical condition. The next morning Miss Berger was in St. Paul and day and night watched over the sick man. A week ago Dr. Straight regained consciousness. He saw Miss Berger at his bedside and at 6 o'clock on the following Saturday when the sick man was still in bed they were made man and wife. His face was won but a smile lighted his features as the words of the wedding ceremony were read by Judge Puchout.

GOLLMAR BROS. HAVE EXCELLENT CIRCUS

Rain and Cold Weather Mars Day's Enjoyment—No Evening Performance.

Tuesday was not an ideal circus day and last evening the downpour caused the management to decide to abandon their evening performance. Those, however, who braved the elements in the afternoon declared they were well repaid. The work of the features were as good as any seen in any former show, the elephants did their clever stunts, the clowns were just as funny as ever with new and original plays, the horses in goat shape and the management should be complimented on the smoothness of the whole affair considering it is the third exhibition of the season. A Wisconsin product, Gollmar Bros. are branching out into a show of major possibilities and it must be closed with the big circuses of the future.

HENRY CAMPBELL DIED YESTERDAY

Old Resident of Rock County Passed Away on Tuesday at His Home in Evansville.

Evansville, May 5.—Henry Campbell, for many years a prominent and influential resident of Rock county, passed to the beyond at eleven o'clock at his home here today, aged seventy-three years. Mr. Campbell had been a great sufferer for a number of years from Bright's disease and other complications, but had been critically ill only since the first of April, and although the family and friends felt that the end of his sufferings was fast approaching they were unprepared for the final summons. He was born in Chautauque Co., New York, on the fifth day of March, 1835, and came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zilurt Campbell, to Wisconsin about sixty-three years ago. On Dec. 27, 1895, he was united in marriage with Miss Vio A. Howard of Cooksville. S. Conrad of Tennessee; and Mrs. L. H. Smith of Scotland; two brothers, William of California and Charles of Broadhead, Wis. KICKERS COLUMN

Editor Janesville Gazette.
Dear Sir: As the good roads question is still up for discussion in your columns, and the narrow tired wagons are beginning to get their just share of the blame for the bad roads, I will contribute the following bit of Rock Co. doggerel, not for its poetical merit, but to call public attention to a much needed reform in the way of protecting good roads after we get them. One day as I was going to market over bad roads, with my heavily loaded, narrow tired wagon, as it went creaking and grinding along it seemed to have a plaintive tone that kept time to a regular rhythm. It seemed to speak for itself and all its predecessors, at any rate, the following rhyme is what I understood it to say:
I was here when Milwaukee had but one street,
And that's a long time ago,
When the deer was the settlers only meat,
When he planted his corn with a hoe,
I looked the state, in '48,
Then native all the time,
Helped train the steers, of the pioneers,
When your grandpa was in his prime
I belong to the age, of the four-horse stage,
Of the wild goose drug, and flail,
I've made many a rut, past a quail log hut,
Crossed many an Indian trail.
In those bygone days, through a crook-o'-haze,
I've run over logs and bumps,
And my narrow tire, though apt to mire,
Avoided all the stumps.
Now times and tools, have changed their rules,
And got more up to date,
While I remain the very same,
As when first I entered the state.
I should, I know, have been years ago,
Thrown into the old scrap heap,
For I've ripped good roads, with heavy loads,
And torn them wide and deep.
I've rutted them up, and sloughed them down,
And left them full of mire,
So take me to town, make them cut me down,
And give me a wider tire.

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.
A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

OHIO GUARD ORDERED OUT

THREATS TO BURN TOWNS IN TOBACCO DISTRICT.

Troops Sent to Protect Aberdeen and Higginsport, at the Request of the Sheriff.

Columbus, O., May 6.—Threats to burn the towns of Aberdeen and Higginsport, emanating from unknown sources but resulting from the bitter warfare in the Hurley tobacco district of Ohio and Kentucky, were largely responsible for an order issued by Gov. Hurd Tuesday evening to Adj. Gen. Critchfield to dispatch troops to the towns mentioned.

Troop 12 of Columbus left for the scene of threatened trouble Wednesday morning at five o'clock. Capt. R. W. Krauss had about 50 cavalrymen in his command. Companies of the First regiment at Cincinnati, and Indiana, were also said to be under waiting orders.

Mr. Gen. Speaks of the Ohio National guard will have charge of the troops in Brown county.

The request for troops was made by Sheriff Perry A. Randall of Brown county, who was here in conference with the governor and adjutant general for the greater part of the day.

BLOODY TRAGEDY IN OHIO.

Horseman Kills Two Persons, Wounds Woman and Commits Suicide.

Washington Court House, O., May 6.—Hert Devaney, aged 43 (widow), a well-known horseman, Tuesday night shot and killed Lida Bird, aged 22, a colored girl, and shot her mother in the abdomen, inflicting a probably fatal wound. He then ran across the town to the barn of Silas Shackelford, where he took refuge. Shackelford went in after him and was shot and killed by Devaney. Later Devaney committed suicide. It is thought Devaney was insane.

Following the shooting of the two women, the authorities organized a posse and company M Fourth regiment, Ohio National Guard, was called, permission having been given by Gov. Harris. The officers surrounded the barn and threatened to burn it. Finally persons ventured up to the barn door and found Devaney had shot himself.

WON'T STOP LIQUOR "ADS."

Judge Strang of Oklahoma Refuses to Enjoin Newspapers.

Guthrie, Okla., May 6.—Judge Strang in the district court here Tuesday denied the application for a temporary injunction in the liquor advertisement case instituted by the attorney general in behalf of the state of Oklahoma against several newspapers circulating in the state and news stands distributing them. Judge Strang held that the Illinois law was an act regulating the sale of liquor, not one to prohibit, and that as long as there was a legal sale of liquor in the state, the newspapers had the right to carry the advertisements and that the whole sale houses had the right to advertise their goods in this state in this manner.

ADMIRAL EVANS

AGAIN ON DECK

BOARDS HIS FLAGSHIP AND LEADS THE FLEET.

START FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Battleships Sail from Santa Cruz for the Golden Gate, Followed by the Torpedo Flotilla.

Santa Cruz, Cal., May 6.—The Atlantic battleship fleet sailed at three p. m. Tuesday for San Francisco with Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans in command, followed by the torpedo flotilla.

At 8:30 o'clock in the morning, the Connecticut went to Monterey, to which point Admiral Evans had come by train. He was met at the wharf by a launch from the flagship. Four picked men lifted the admiral from the train and placed him in an invalid chair and rolled him to the launch waiting at the end of the wharf. He walked down the ladder to the launch, leaning on a crutch and aided by the men, who assisted him at every step. The moment he was on board the launch shoved off and in a few minutes was alongside the Connecticut. Everything on the flagship was in readiness and the moment the launch came alongside ropes were lowered, attached to a chair, and the admiral was hoisted into the air and gently deposited on the deck of his old ship. At the same instant the blue flag with the two white stars was broke out at the mainmast.

Fleet Off for 'Frisco.
The combined Atlantic fleet commenced the final leg of its cruise from Hampton Roads to San Francisco. It weighed anchor in Santa Cruz bay late Tuesday afternoon and formed in fleet column for the cruise along the coast to San Francisco lightship, where it anchored at nine o'clock Tuesday night. Wednesday it will again get under way, and soon will be well within the Golden Gate. When the day was missing from the line of the ships before the city. While a dense fog enveloped the bay she had quietly slipped anchor and got under way for Monterey, where Rear Admiral Evans waited ready to board her and resume active command of the fleet. As the anchors of the flagship were raised Tuesday the blue and star-spangled flag of Rear Admiral Thomas was run down from the mainmast.

Crowd Awaits Fleet.
San Francisco, May 6.—Probably the largest crowd in the history of San Francisco assembled around the shores of the bay to witness the arrival of the Atlantic fleet. Thousands of people arrived daily by train and boat from all parts of the Pacific coast, and many came from as far east as Chicago. Special trains arrived every hour, and all were crowded to their utmost capacity. It was estimated that the number of visitors and residents here to greet the warships was not far from 1,000,000. The elevated character of the shores afforded many vantage points, and a splendid view could be had of the vessels entering the Golden Gate and sweeping in long, curving lines to their anchorage in Mission bay. Goat Island, on which is located the naval training school, was thrown open to the public and was thronged with people.

Tom Johnson in the Minority.
Columbus, O., May 6.—By a close vote and after a stormy session, Mayor Tom Johnson of Cleveland lost his fight Tuesday night for the control of the Democratic state convention, which Wednesday will nominate a state ticket, a candidate for United States senator and four delegates-at-large to the national convention at Denver. A test of the relative strength of the Johnson and anti-Johnson factions of the party was taken on a minority report which proposed to seat a contesting delegation from Lucas county which was favorable to Johnson. The report was rejected by a vote of 463 to 430.

Mail Clerk Kills Himself.
Lexington, Mo., May 6.—G. W. Lemon, a mail clerk on the Missouri Pacific between Lexington and Sedalia, committed suicide Tuesday in his car seven miles west of here by drinking carbolic acid. No reason for the act is known.

Important Detail.
The steel business is reported to be improving. Kindly pay particular attention to the spelling.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Crowd Awaits Fleet.
San Francisco, May 6.—Probably the largest crowd in the history of San Francisco assembled around the shores of the bay to witness the arrival of the Atlantic fleet. Thousands of people arrived daily by train and boat from all parts of the Pacific coast, and many came from as far east as Chicago. Special trains arrived every hour, and all were crowded to their utmost capacity. It was estimated that the number of visitors and residents here to greet the warships was not far from 1,000,000. The elevated character of the shores afforded many vantage points, and a splendid view could be had of the vessels entering the Golden Gate and sweeping in long, curving lines to their anchorage in Mission bay. Goat Island, on which is located the naval training school, was thrown open to the public and was thronged with people.

Tom Johnson in the Minority.
Columbus, O., May 6.—By a close vote and after a stormy session, Mayor Tom Johnson of Cleveland lost his fight Tuesday night for the control of the Democratic state convention, which Wednesday will nominate a state ticket, a candidate for United States senator and four delegates-at-large to the national convention at Denver. A test of the relative strength of the Johnson and anti-Johnson factions of the party was taken on a minority report which proposed to seat a contesting delegation from Lucas county which was favorable to Johnson. The report was rejected by a vote of 463 to 430.

Mail Clerk Kills Himself.
Lexington, Mo., May 6.—G. W. Lemon, a mail clerk on the Missouri Pacific between Lexington and Sedalia, committed suicide Tuesday in his car seven miles west of here by drinking carbolic acid. No reason for the act is known.

Two Towns Burned.
Business Portions of Walkerton, Ind., and Coalton, O., Destroyed.

South Bend, Ind., May 6.—The business district of Walkerton, 19 miles southeast of South Bend, was destroyed by fire Tuesday.

The loss is $100,000, partly covered by insurance.

Walkerton, O., May 6.—Coalton, a mining village of 1,000 inhabitants, was visited by the worst conflagration in her history Tuesday morning, and as a result the police station and the building containing the fire apparatus and several other buildings in the heart of the business district are in ashes. The fire was of mysterious origin. It started in the mayor's office, consuming all the records and other papers of the village government.

St. Louis, May 6.—A thunderstorm of unusual severity, accompanied by a high wind of almost tornado velocity, swept over this vicinity Tuesday, doing much damage to property and indirectly causing loss of life. A bridge on the Louisville & Nashville road, near Belleville, Ill., was washed out and wrecked a freight train. Engineer Carl Ward, fireman Chas. and a trainman whose name has not been learned were caught under the engine and drowned. The train was piled up in a mass in Schoenbach creek, which was swollen into a torrent. The village of Edgemoor, Ill., was flooded, and many persons were forced to take refuge on improvised rafts. The whole area of lowlands, known as the American bottom, east of East St. Louis, Ill., and comprising 35 square miles of territory, is under water.

French Village, a town of 1,000 inhabitants, one of the oldest settlements in Illinois, was struck by a miniature tornado and many houses were unroofed.

Belleville was left without electric light or power by the inundation of the Belleville Gas and Electric Company plant.

Another rain and electrical storm of unusual severity swept over St. Louis and St. Louis county Tuesday night, doing considerable damage along the lines mapped out by the storm of the morning. Many houses were struck by lightning.

Peoria, Ill., May 6.—The hurricane which visited this vicinity early Tuesday morning did damage estimated at $10,000 to river craft. A large part of the fleet of the Ivy club was blown on shore. In the city the courthouse caught fire from crossed wires, but the rain quenched the fire.

Memphis, Tenn., May 6.—Three persons dead, several others injured, considerable property loss and a demoralization of traffic resulted from the storm of wind and rain which swept over southern Arkansas, western Tennessee and Mississippi Monday night and Tuesday. The greatest damage and the loss of life occurred in Arkansas. At Marche, the Polish settlement, was badly damaged and John Lukaszewicz, Mary Szczepaniak and an unidentified man were killed. Watson, Decha county, is reported practically destroyed, but the reports from this point are very meager.

Jackson, Miss., May 6.—There was a torrential rain over the greater portion of Mississippi Tuesday. All railroad trains are delayed by washouts and several are water-bound. The storm has added to the misery and suffering in the district stricken last week by a tornado.

The lower house of congress was roundly denounced, a week ago, for pigeonholing some of the President's pet measures, but now Speaker Cannon and his associates are commended for the wisdom displayed. The Hepburn bill, which was the President's hobby, is found to be vicious and impractical and the house had the courage to turn it down.

State institution scandals seem to be the campaign issue in Illinois, and Governor Deneen has his hands full in attempting to explain conditions. His principal opponent is ex-Governor Yates. When the latter retired from office, four years ago, the people seemed to have enough of Yates, but now the cry is "anything to beat Deneen."

Six railroads, accused of having violated the 28-hour cattle law, had the misfortune to fall into the hands of Judge Landis, of Standard Oil fame, and are fined $15,500, on numerous counts. Railroads appear to be "getting it," both going and coming.

The credit of a railway corporation is its most valuable asset. When stocks and bonds are not negotiable, extensions and improvements are at a standstill, and stagnation follows. The nation suffers today because confidence is not fully restored.

It behooves Col. Bryan to get out and practice baseball, if he expects to beat his Minnesota competitor. Johnson is said to be an old-time player, and an all-around enthusiast, and the chances are that he will capture the ball vote.

The first of May, usually noted for strikes and labor demonstrations, passed without a ripple. Men who are fortunate enough to have work these days, are satisfied to let well enough alone.

Johnnie Went to the Circus. When the one o'clock Forest Park car went up the hill yesterday a gentleman stepped aboard to find the only occupant a boy, curled up in the corner. Feeling sociably inclined, he said to the lad:

"Where are you going, son?"

"To the circus," the boy promptly replied.

"But you are on the wrong car. This car doesn't go any where near the circus ground."

"Yes, I know," said the boy, "but I only had a nickel and so they told me to stay on and transfer on the way back."

"Then you haven't any money for a ticket to the show," suggested the gentleman.

"Oh, no," said the boy, "but I will find an odd job and earn enough to get in."

"Then the picture of another boy, back in the years when the circus was the great event in every country boy's life, dashed into the mind of the man, and a bright quarter found its way into the hand of the boy who started out with a nickel to see the circus."

Only a little act in the drama of every day life, but good for the heart of both man and boy.

Ingratitude to Employees.

It is a pretty serious thing, Mr. Employer, to vent your spleen upon those who are really doing their best to help you succeed. Did you ever think that your success depends very largely upon your employees, that they are really your silent partners, that you could not possibly get rich without them?

Did you ever think that many of those working for you might, given opportunities as good as those you have had, be vastly superior to you?

Many employers do not praise, upon principle. They think it is very bad for the employee; that criticism is much better than appreciation. Nothing is false than this idea. Some people are so constituted that they live upon appreciation and praise.—Orison Sweet Marden, in Success Magazine.

FARMERS CHANCE TO GET GOOD FARM HELP

Gazette Prints Following Letter in Hopes It May Benefit Boys and Farmers.

This morning the following letter was received from Bert Hall, chief trustee officer of Milwaukee schools. The letter speaks for itself and it is in the hopes that the boys and farmers of Rock county will be mutually benefited that it is printed.

Mr. Editor: In the city of Milwaukee there are thousands of good boys from 14 to 18 years of age who are out of work. The school law compels these boys to be regularly employed or attend school.

This department is striving to get places for boys of this kind on the farms of Wisconsin. If you will publish a notice in your paper it might help some farmers in your vicinity to get a good boy to help him with his farm work. Not every boy sent out turns out a good investment for the farmer but many of them make excellent farm hands.

We expect farmers to advance railroad fare and start the boys at from $8 to $10 per month, according to the size and ability of the boys. The railroad fare is to be deducted from the boy's wages if he does not remain at least four months. If he does remain four months and does well, he is to be given his railroad fare.

Farmers must not expect to make too much profit out of a boy at first. The life is now to them and the work is new but with kind treatment and instruction, the boys will usually turn out well. Farmers who would like to try a boy should make application to Bert Hall, chief trustee officer, City Hall, Milwaukee.

It is necessary for farmers to give references so we may know the boys are going to work for reputable men. Very truly yours,

BERT HALL,

Chief Trustee Officer,

Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

WATERS REFUSE TO GIVE UP DROWNED

Bodies of Two Students Drowned Several Weeks Ago Have Not Yet Been Found.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., May 6.—Lake Mendota refuses to give up the bodies of George H. Hamilton of Berlin, Wis., and John O. Watkins of Milwaukee, the two University of Wisconsin students who were drowned with out in a canoe on the afternoon of April 13.

Rumors have been persistent to the effect that the boys were not drowned, but that they set the frail craft adrift in the dusk that evening and ran away. Next day the canoe and paddle were found adrift in the lake, and a sweater worn by one of the boys was also been found. The rumors involve hints at reasons why the boys might have wished to disappear as though dead. It transpires that they were not up with their classes in studies and that some financial reasons exist why they might wish to leave the university, but in general these rumors are discredited. The mother of Watkins and the father of Hamilton have been

Not for the Poor Man.

The girl who doesn't take care of her clothes is no wife for the poor man; she needs some one who can give her an unlimited dress allowance and a maid to look after her, says Home Chat. There is another point. If it is too much trouble to take care of her clothes before, it will be too much trouble to take care of her house-keeping stores after marriage, with the result that a large part of them are wasted.

Fire Police Met.—The Janesville

LAUNCH SHOOTING EPISODE IS ENDED

Case Against Fred Edwards Dismissed on His Payment of the Costs—Both Parties Were at Fault.

Fred Edwards, who is employed on the Hart farm, located on the east side of the river directly opposite the Chautauque grounds, appeared in municipal court this morning to answer to a charge of taking a pistol with a rifle at a launch party consisting of George Rogers, Charles Ripley, and Frank Brooge, one day last week. District Attorney J. L. Fisher represented the complainants and Atty. Charles Root, the defendant. After much consultation between the lawyers an agreement whereby the case was to be dismissed on condition that the defendant pay the costs amounting to $6.08 was finally reached, and a motion to that effect was entertained and granted by the court.

It appears from the statements made by both parties to the action that Edwards purchased in good faith of the supposed owner, a rowboat which had been beached in the vicinity of the Hart farm for some time. After he had repaired and repainted the craft, one of the complainants appeared on the scene and laid claim to it. Mr. Edwards refused to surrender it until "legally shown" and both individuals probably lost their tempers. Some days afterward the launch party seized the rowboat and were getting away with it when Edwards discovered them.

He commanded them to stop and under the supposition that a man may legally protect his property by force, fired a shot to alarm them into obedience. He insists, however, that he pointed the rifle several degrees away from their group, having no intention of actually making a target of the party. The complainants, also, are unable to say that the bullet hit the water at closer range than a few rods. Judge Elford, in dismissing the action, laid much stress on the danger of firing shots on the water, calling attention to the fact that a bullet hitting the surface of the river in such a fashion may be deflected at right angles from its original course and do damage where none is intended. He thought that shooting along the riverbank for any purpose, whatsoever, should be discouraged. District Attorney Fisher also called attention to the fact that the drowning of the little Melanville boy about a year ago was caused by a bullet being driven by fright, occasioned by his being shot, to jump out of a boat which he and some of his companions had borrowed.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

G. A. R. and W. R. C.: Members of W. R. C. No. 26, G. A. R. and W. R. C. No. 21, will hold a joint social session at the hall this evening and all identified with either organization and their families are invited. Mrs. George D. Sweet of Chicago, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shawman and a former resident of this city, will be present and will take part in the program.

John Timmons Hurt at Dance: While an "Old Folks" quadrille was in progress at the Knights of Columbus dancing party last evening, John Timmons lost his footing and fell with considerable force against the orchestra stand, dislocating his right shoulder. He was assisted to the smoking room where Dr. J. P. Pomeroy, in response to a call, attended him. Subsequently he was removed to his home south of the State Institute for the Blind.

Taken Back to Asylum: Hurley Haight was taken back to the asylum at Mendota by an officer who arrived from Madison last evening. Haight has been an inmate of that institution on three occasions. He formerly made his home in Hanover, but during the past winter had been teaching in this city and keeping his horses in a First Ward barn. When he took his team to the barn yesterday and found the door locked, he turned the horses loose and they were recovered after a long search by Officer Pannings.

"Tilly Olson" Play at Theatre: "Tilly Olson," a Swedish dialect play, was presented before a fair sized audience at the Myers theatre last evening. It is a comedy-drama with a melodramatic undercurrent and plenty of amusing episodes and situations. Miss Emily Erickson Greene plays the role of the imperturbable "Tilly" and gives an exceedingly good character delineation. The support, including the boy actor, Master George Falkner, is uniformly good.

Leave For Europe: Mrs. Helen C. Shore, Miss Catherine R. Elford and Miss Catherine R. Elford leave tomorrow morning for New York. They will sail from that city on the ninth of this month for an extended European trip.

Here For Operation: Dr. Charles Kamble and Dr. Fred Sutherland of Chicago were in Janesville yesterday to assist Dr. Charles Sutherland in an operation. Mrs. Fred Sutherland and child accompanied them. They returned this morning.

Entertained at Bridge: Miss Mabel Greenman entertained three tables of bridge yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Helen Downer of Chicago, who is visiting Miss Mabel Spencer. Miss Elizabeth Wilcox gained first honors and Miss Vera Wilcox received the consolation prize.

Sue for Attorney's Fees: Atty. Fred P. Burpee has commenced in municipal court an action against John P. Wright to recover a balance of $55 in attorney's fees which the defendant refuses to pay. The trial is set for next Wednesday.

Tom Dougherty Fined: Thomas Dougherty pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness before Judge Elford this morning and paid a fine and costs amounting to $5.10.

C. H. Sharpe Wanted: According to a communication received at the county jail from Sheriff Kottelson of Dane county, Charles H. THEO. KARLL TRIED TO KILL HIMSELF

Was Found in the Rear of Nelson's Barn Late This Afternoon—Will Recover.

At four o'clock this afternoon, Theodore Karll, employed at Nelson's livery barn as a washer, went suddenly insane and tried to hang himself in the rear end of the barn. VISITS HIS FATHER AFTER LONG ABSENCE

Albert Truesdill Saw His Father on Monday for the First Time in 29 Years.

Twenty-nine years ago Albert Truesdill, a son of Mr. A. E. Truesdill of this city, went to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, with his mother to live. He was a mere baby at the time, not over three years old. On Monday he reached town and called on his father at his thimble on the lower bridge and saw him for the first time in twenty-nine years.

When Albert Truesdill was a mere boy, having his way to make, he left Cedar Rapids and went to New York and shipped as a cabin boy out of that port and made several long voyages. As he became older he decided that the sea was no place for a boy and as soon as he was old enough he enlisted in the army. He served two terms of enlistment in the regular army and later was in the Spanish-American war, seeing fighting in the Philippines and in Cuba. When his final term was out he received a large sum of money as a bounty and with that he purchased a hotel in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, which he is now running. He also married soon after he left the army.

His father has known of his whereabouts for a number of years and they have planned several visits, but something had always prevented them from meeting. Sometime ago Mr. Albert Truesdill made a visit to friends in North Dakota and on his way home thought he would stop and see his father. So Monday afternoon he called at his shop and made himself known.

Since Monday he has been staying with his father and visiting the town. Mr. A. E. Truesdill was very glad to welcome his son after his long absence and persuaded him to remain until next Monday, when he will return to Cedar Rapids.

MOTOR ROLLER CO. WILL NOT CONTEST

That is the Conclusion Drawn From Letter Received This Morning—Kelly-Springfield Given Severe Trial.

This morning the highway committee of the common council was driven in the police patrol wagon to the rear of James A. Fathens' property in the Third ward where an inspection was made of the strip of land which naturally belongs to South Bluff street and which Mr. Fathens offers to dedicate if the city will build a sidewalk. The Kelly-Springfield roller was given a severe test in drawing the plow up hill on Wheeler and North First streets this afternoon. City Clerk A. E. Ludwig today received a letter from the Austin Western firm where it was stated that because of such orders, Illinois agents, etc., the company had been unable to send a machine here for the contest and probably would be unable to do so within the time prescribed by the council. It was hinted that an extension of the time of the contest beyond May 10 would be agreeable. This is taken to mean that the concern is gracefully hedging and will not send a roller here.

THE STOLEN HACK HAS BEEN FOUND

Was Firmly Wedged in Between Telephone Pole and Curb of Holmes and Locust streets.

About three o'clock this morning the hack left standing in front of Russell's livery barn and stolen by some mysterious party for an equally mysterious purpose at half past eleven o'clock last evening, was found wedged in between a telephone pole and the curb at the corner of Holmes and Locust street. Every effort of the team to get loose had only more firmly anchored the vehicle.

The discovery was made by one of the drivers after scouting parties from the barn and police board the patrol wagon had conducted a search in nearly every corner of the city. So damage had been done to the property though the horses showed signs of having been given a hard run, a footprint on one of the upholstered seats was the only mark that served to indicate that any part of the equipment other than the driver's box had been occupied. Will Collins had left the rig standing in front of the barn and was in the office at the time it was taken. A. A. Russell, returning from a walk down town and inquiring where his hack was gave him the first intimation that anything was wrong. Whether the author or authors of the hold theft were merely "drunks" looking for an easy ride home, or parties bent on carrying out some questionable errand, or ex-delivers are questions which thus far seem very difficult of solution. According to one report a pedestrian on Eastern avenue saw a team answer the description being driven at a rapid gait on that thoroughfare not long after it was missed.

READY TO MEET THE NEW INTERURBAN

F. W. Montgomery of Madison is interested in News of Road from Janesville.

F. W. Montgomery, president of the Southern Wisconsin Railway company which owns the Madison city line, is anxiously awaiting news of the proposed Janesville-Madison interurban. In the State Journal yesterday he states that he is ready to meet the proposed road more than half way if it is to be built, which may be taken in mind by the fact that he will make satisfactory arrangements for its entrance into Madison over his line. Mr. Montgomery is a trifle skeptical over the possibility of the road being built, but says that there is plenty of money for such purposes in the country. H. H. Ziegler, who represents the men planning to build the road, went to Edgerton this morning to join the party of engineers working towards that city. Last evening he stated it would be at least three months before the actual work of construction could begin considering every detail, including the time necessary for making application to the railway commission for the franchise. A few surveys will be made before the levels are run, but this he does not expect to take any considerable time as he will probably have another engineering force in the field which will be brought from the syndicate's road which is being built in Michigan and is now almost complete.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, May 6, 1868.—The weather—A dreaching rain last night and this morning accompanied by a heavy blow, has been succeeded by cloudy, chilly weather in marked contrast with the warm sunshine of yesterday. The thermometer indicated 48 degrees at three o'clock.

A Small Mill.—Last evening about seven o'clock our attention was called to a large crowd of men and boys passing in the rear of the Gazette office. Thinking it a good chance for an item, we followed the crowd to a wooden structure between Main and bluff streets, where the crowd had made a ring, for a couple of hundred yards, about fourteen years old, to settle a dispute. Paddy Mc-Ginley seemed to be the referee in the mill, which soon went off, but not, however, until the heaviest one of the two had gained his point and regards the rules. With some pretty blows, and a heavy blow from each, both winners went down, when the bigger and little boy took advantage and seemed to hold his opponent in chancery, the crowd coming from his position box quite freely. After Paddy McGinley thought the smaller had little boy was whipped enough, they were pulled apart; but the light weight had too much gameness in him to give it up, and insisted that the big had little boy should stand off and take a square stand up and knock down fight. At this point some one started for an officer, and the crowd hearing of it, there was a general stampede.

Impeachment Trial.—Judge Blagham spoke for four hours yesterday.
The largest audience of the trial was in attendance. The speech was even more attentively listened to than the portion delivered on Monday. It was for the most part a close legal argument, and the Senate appeared to be following it from first to last with great care.

And he close of the trial approaches
Washington is full of rumors concerning the result. One day the President's friends are exulting over the bright prospect of acquittal, on they think, and the next day they are plunged into the slough of de-pond, while the Republicans are in high feather. Doubtless says he is confident the impeachment will fail, the wish doubtless, being father to the thought.

ROYAL PALACE AT THE HAGUE—H. M. WILHELMINA, QUEEN OF HOLLAND AND THE PRINCE CONSORT.

Among all the royal families of Europe perhaps none offer the picturesqueness of the Holland court. The queen and prince consort are young, charming, vivacious and extremely popular with the people.

It is generally admitted that the queen knows her power and does not hesitate to use it even on the prince consort and this at times led to slight domestic troubles, but the prince, who is a dashing young man, has won the hearts of his subjects, and although he must dislike the imperative manner of the queen toward him, the young couple are becoming closer and it is hoped those slight differences will soon be a thing of the past.

"Lack of great wealth keeps a lot of people out of the international divorce courts."

CAUCUS COMES TO NO DECISION

REPUBLICANS DISCUSS VRE- LAND FINANCIAL BILL.

FORESTRY SERVICE IS HIT

Senator Heyburn Ridicules Work and Charts of the Bureau—House Debates Sundry Civil Bill.

Washington, May 6.—The Republican members of the house of representatives were in caucus for three hours Tuesday night in an effort to agree upon a plan for currency legislation, but adjourned at 11 o'clock without achieving any definite result.

The meeting was early resolved into a conference and proceeded with the understanding that the result, whatever it might be, should not be binding upon members. The discussion was based on the following resolution which was introduced by Mr. Bennett of New York:

"Resolved, that the conference approve the underlying principles of the Vreeland bill, namely the recognition of commercial paper through clearing house associations as a safe and logical asset for emergency currency, and also approve the proposition for a currency commission, and be it further resolved, that a committee of five be appointed to perfect the bill, such committee to report the perfected bill at an adjourned meeting to be held in five days."

Heyburn Attacks Forestry Service.

An extended speech in opposition to the forestry service was made by Senator Heyburn of Idaho in the senate Tuesday, while the agriculture appropriation bill was under consideration. Mr. Heyburn ridiculed the charts of the forestry service, one of which he had exhibited on the wall of the senate chamber marked with such legends as "about 20 years' supply left," and declared that the forestry had undertaken to prophesy concerning the life of the forests in a way that would require more wisdom than was possessed by the sage of old. He said such men forgot that forests grow, and added that there is as much forest growth to-day as there ever has been in the history of the world.

Sundry Civil Bill in House.

A lively debate was kept up all day in the house on the sundry civil appropriation bill. Repeated efforts were made by Messrs. Gaines, (Penn.), and Chaney, (Ind.), supported by many other members, to procure an appropriation for an investigation looking to increasing safety in mining and they had about got Chairman Tawney to the point where he would consent to an appropriation of $50,000 when Mr. Underwood of Alabama objected and the proposition, for the time at least, was dropped.

A provision in the bill for the purchase of over 6,000 acres of land as an addition to Fort McKinley, Philippine Islands, based on a recommendation by Gen. Leonard Wood elicited severe criticism of that officer by Messrs. Fitzgerald, (N. Y.), and Butler, (Pa.), the former continually referring to him as "Dr. Wood." The provision, on motion of Mr. Hay of Virginia was stricken out by unanimous vote.

The additions to the bill were $100,000 for the military prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and $16,500 for an addition to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., or a total increase to date of $121,000.

No Strike Likely in Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., May 6.—Nearly all possibility of a strike of the conductors and motormen to gain wage and other concessions from the Municipal Traction company was removed Tuesday. President Dupont of the traction company in answer to the ultimatum of the union stated he was willing to arbitrate all local questions, but asked that his company be given until Wednesday night to lay the matter before the directors and select an arbitrator.

DECLARES THAW IS INSANE.

Superintendent of Matteawan Asylum Replies to Habeas Corpus Writ.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 6.—Dr. Amos T. Baker, acting superintendent of the Matteawan state hospital, in his return Tuesday to the writ of habeas corpus obtained by counsel for Harry K. Thaw, denied the allegations in the petition of counsel that Thaw is now sane, and alleges on the contrary that Thaw is insane. Dr. Baker has had Thaw under observation during his confinement in Matteawan following the trial for the slaying of Stanford White.

Tragedy at Montpelier, Vt.

Montpelier, Vt., May 6.—Miss Christina Hau, a young woman supposed to have been insane, shot and probably fatally injured Louis Neveu, a hotel clerk, on the principal street of the city late Tuesday night and then killed herself. Neveu told the officials of Heaton hospital that he had never seen Miss Hau before and could not account for the tragedy.

Coroner's Jury Acquits Potter.

Peoria, Ill., May 6.—Frank J. Potter, the retired farmer who was arrested on a warrant charging the murder of his wife, was acquitted by a verdict of the coroner's jury Tuesday evening. The warrant will stand, however, and Potter will be given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Whitney on Saturday morning.

CLEANING UP SCHEME.

How Girls Helped to Clear a Tract For New Park.

If any tract of land in your town needs cleaning up, try the following method adopted by the mayor of a Missouri town:

Every schoolgirl in Alton, Mo., became a Maid Muller the other day, but instead of a "mound sweet with hay" she raked the sixty-five acre tract, including Rock Spring park, donated to Alton for public purposes.

Mayor Beall headed the park raking fete. He was there with the biggest rake of all and made the greatest show of feverish industry, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. All the citizens of the town were invited to help, and most of them responded. All the school children were invited, and all of them responded. Free transportation was provided on street car lines to the park, and special cars were run for the rakers.

No appropriation was made by the city council for cleaning the tract, and Mayor Beall resorted to a general call. The results surpassed his expectations, and rubbish and leaves disappeared as if by magic.

Selling by Fraud.

One of the catalogue houses, otherwise mail order stores, is selling for $8 an electroplated watch which it represents as having a gold filled case, and the house warrants the timepiece for twenty years. Precisely the same watch is sold at a profit by many jewelers for $2. The mail order concern which sells it for $8 makes at least $5 by clear and unadulterated fraud. Yet many persons throughout the country are buying this timepiece just because of the twenty years' warranty and the gold filling claim. Naturally a man who has been "handed a lemon" will not kick back if the lemon turns out to be sour, so the catalogue house has very little trouble from the complaints of those who find that the article they get is not the one they order.

Beautifying the Railways.

In the west there is a growing appreciation of the movement to beautify the steel highways, a movement now in popular favor and under full swing on the Atlantic coast. Both steam and electric lines in Los Angeles are each year giving the matter more time and attention. It is a highly contagious work, for it stimulates both towns and rural districts to clean up and plant streets and highways as well as to improve private places. We shall yet see the day when all railway embankments will be permanently planted with suitable shrubbery.

Dallied of Sleepy Bill.

In Sleepyville dwell Sleepy Bill. Who kept a sleepy store. A place was it to lounge or sit And snore and snore and snore. And sometimes come to play a game Of checkers three or four.

But seldom there a lady fair A bargain came to buy. For women's toes in catalogues Quite often caught the eye. So things for sale they bought by mail At prices low or high.

In town one day appeared a gay And lively youth, who quoth: "Why sit and snore and let your store Run down? Open my oath, Lemme run things and make, by Jingo, A fortune for us both!"

Bill said "No, I'm dead away. But Mr. Lively sized Things up at once—he was no dunce— And went and advertised Such bargain rates (Bill had 'em there) The public was surprised.

The buyers came—young girl and dame And youth and man and child. There was a rush, a real crush— In fact, to put it mild. All Sleepyville woke up, until The rush was almost wild.

And Bill awoke and even spoke. He said: "I'm feelin' pore. I never thought folks would have fought To patronize my store. I guess them ads. Is payin' fade— I'll advertise some more."

J., May 6.—Denver will be the next gathering place of the American Bankers' association, according to the decision reached by the members of the executive committee of the association, who met here Tuesday. Democrats Carry St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., May 6.—Daniel Lawler, the Democratic nominee for mayor of St. Paul, was elected Tuesday over Joseph McKibbin, Republican, by an estimated plurality of about 3,000. Partial returns indicate the election of Louis Betz, Democrat, comptroller, and Otto Bremer, Democrat, for treasurer by safe majorities.

HENRY H. ROGERS, VICE PRESIDENT AND CONTROLLING MANAGER OF THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY.

New York.—H. H. Rogers, vice president and controlling manager of the Standard Oil last year were $5,000,000 to cut the biggest financial watermelon of the year. It is said to be no less a purpose than that of increasing the capital stock of Standard Oil from $100,000,000 to $500,000,000, with the added $400,000,000 thrown in as a strong remembrance for present stockholders.

In other words, the fortunate owner of a Standard Oil certificate for $100 will, under Mr. Rogers' magnificent plan, receive $100 of stock absolutely free, giving him a total holding of $500. It will be expected, of course, that this plan to quadruple the stock will considerably decrease the value of present oil stock shares, but it is also believed that in the natural course of events the quadrupled stock will ultimately regain exactly as large a stock valuation as the original undivided shares possess today.

Since his return from Bermuda ten days ago Mr. Rogers, who is the vice president and controlling manager of the corporation, has been engaged with a corps of lawyers in working out the details of the recapitalization plan, which will probably be announced to the public as soon as conditions warrant. It now seems that there can be no doubt of the purpose of Standard Oil to thus increase itself.

The prevalence of the rumor has already had a marked effect. During the dark days last winter when all stock values tumbled terribly, Standard Oil sold down to 200. Then came a steady rise and in the last month the stock has gone up more than one hundred points. It has sold on the curb this week for 611.

The capital stock of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is divided into 1,000,000 shares, each of which has a par value of $100. On this basis of price of stock today, the value of Standard Oil capitalization is $100,000,000, but when the dividends are paid the public naturally figures them not upon the market valuation but up on the par value. The net profits of Standard Oil last year were $85,000,000. The public figured that this represented an 85 per cent profit on the par value of capital stock, and therefore the public immediately concluded that Standard Oil was acquiring decidedly advantageous profits. Now it is declared the increase of capitalization is in deference to this public sentiment. If the corporation had been capitalized at $500,000,000 last year instead of $100,000,000 the net profits would have figured on a basis of but 17 per cent of 85 per cent, and the size of the pot would not have appeared so forcefully to the stock rakers. In other words, if the plan of recapitalization is put through by Mr. Rogers, Standard Oil stockholders will receive the same magnificent dividends as heretofore, only they will be figured on five shares of stock where one now exists, the five being held, however, in exactly the same way and by exactly the same owner as the one is being held today.

The increased capitalization is justified, however, by arguments suggesting the legitimacy of a 500,000,000 capital for the big corporation. It is declared that Standard Oil owns investments worth 600,000,000, that it employs 65,000 men, that it owns 85,000 miles of pipe lines, that it owns 70 ocean steamers and 15 barges and smaller steamers, that it operates 10,000 cars in America and 2,000 tank cars abroad, that it has storage tanks with a capacity of 82,000,000 barrels.

that it is now expending $70,000,000 on terminals. It is suggested that a capitalization of $500,000,000 on a concern of this magnitude is really comparatively small.

FLEET HAS PASSED THE GOLDEN GATE

Nearly Fifty Ships of War Are Safely In San Francisco Harbor After Memorable Voyage.

San Francisco, Calif., May 6.—The American fleet of battleships, 132 days out from Hampton Roads, reached its destination today. Accompanied by the ships of the Pacific coast squadron, torpedo boat destroyers and auxiliaries, the whole making a mighty fleet of nearly fifty ships of war, the sixteen great battleships that rounded the Horn steamed majestically into the Golden Gate this afternoon, marking the end of one of the greatest naval achievements ever recorded in times of peace.

The voyage that has aroused discussion in naval circles all over the world is now an accomplished fact. The great fighting machines are this afternoon riding the waters of San Francisco harbor looking as trim and as spotless as when they ploughed their way out of Hampton Roads on December 16 last. Admiral Evans and his 15,000 men-o'-war-men, probably proud of duty well performed, are ready to partake of the lavish entertainment provided in their honor by the people of San Francisco and vicinity.

It was nearly noon when the ships were sighted at the entrance to the famed Golden Gate. The ships came through the channel in single file, the flagship Connecticut leading the way. It was a sight never to be forgotten by those fortunate enough to view it. Guns boomed, flags fluttered, bands played and the people cheered. The bay was dotted with gaily decorated pleasure craft of all descriptions. Thousands of people lined the shore and blackened the promontories jutting into the sea.

The Atlantic fleet sailed through the Golden Gate alone, but the ships of the Pacific fleet joined them at Angel Island, just within the harbor entrance, and the combined force of battleships, cruisers, torpedo boat destroyers and auxiliary craft paraded through the bay to the reviewing anchorage. The ships came to anchor in four long columns, heading toward Goat Island and extending south in the bay from a point off Market street, past Mission rock and on to Potrero Point.
